GATACRE IS DEFEATED

The Boers Defeat Him in a Battle
Near Bethulie.

HIS LOSS WAS HEAVY

Many of His Men Were Captured by Kruger's Soldiers—London Has No Confirmation and Doubts
the Information.

Kroonstadt, Orange Free State, March 20.—Boers commanded by Gen. Olivier have engaged British troops under Gatacre in the vicinity of Bethulie, repulsing the British with heavy loss and capturing many of them. Burghers are arriving here in great numbers. General De Wet has arrived. Desultory fighting with Colonel Plumer's column has occurred near Gaberones.

REPORT DOUBTED.

Last Report from Gatacre Indicates He Was "Well."

London, March 22.—A dispatch to the Daily News from Springfontein, March 20, says Gatacre was "well," and he and Brabant had not lost a dozen men in a fortnight. This combined with the fact that no mention of the affair is made by Lord Roberts in his dispatch of March 21, confirms the belief that Kroonstadt advices are erroneous.

Reports of skirmishing near Lobatsi, while apparently not inflicting seriously on Plumer's columns, cause grave anxiety in regard to his ability to reach Mafeking. Further news from that quarter is anxiously awaited, for in the six days that have elapsed since the last messages was sent off, a serious engagement may have occurred, though not of Plumer's seeking. The Boers seem determined not to give up their prey at Mafeking without a fierce struggle.

The Times publishes a dispatch from Lorenzo Marquez, which quotes President Steyn as saying at Kroonstadt the Boers could continue the struggle for six months longer. While the Boers and British in the Orange Free State are taking advantage of the period of inactivity to enjoying a rest, those on the borders of Natal are beginning to show activity.

A special dispatch from Durban says the town of Pomeroy, 30 miles east of Ladysmith, has been burned by the Boers. British detachment arriving at Pomeroy as the Boers evacuated the place, shelled the burghers, but they succeeded in taking up a strong position in the hills with a force estimated to number 5000 men.

General Roberts telegraphs from Bloemfontein under date of March 21, as follows:

"So many burghers have expressed a desire to surrender under the terms of the last proclamation, that I have sent a small column in various directions to register their names and take over their arms.

"A cavalry brigade has gone eastward to Thabanchu and a detachment from Springfontein has occupied Smithfield, where some Transvaalers with wagons and ammunition were captured.

"Scott's guards are at Edenburg and Reddersburg. Clements' brigade is marching hither by way of Philippopolis and Fautessmith."

NOT AS EXPECTED.

Boers Confronting Methuen Not as Well
Fixed as Supposed.

London, March 22.—That many mistaken estimates were made of the Boer strength and guile while Methuen's force remained passive in front of it, is clear from the following accounts of a personal inspection of Magersfontein, written by the Daily Telegraph's correspondent after the Boers had evacuated the slaughter place of the Highlanders: "We looked in vain for the 8-foot wire entanglements of which we had read so much from the pens of hysterical and probably rather frightened young soldiers, after the Magersfontein mishap. Instead of an entanglement there was only a simple wire boundary fence, not continuous, but placed at intervals along the line of the trenches and hung with strips of beef drying into biltong. This domesticity was probably a more formidable obstacle than the poor little fence on which it hung. Then we looked for the deep trenches—underground dwellings deep enough to engulf man and horse—of which we had also heard.

"Disappointment again. A single trench, or rather a double row of simple trenches, deep to mid thigh, very narrow and well protected by head cover of sand bags and a slight breastwork. The trench was as simple as the profile and confined its complications to a slight waviness of plan and an occasional traverse to minimize the effect of shell fire. The most noticeable fact with regard to the trenches was that the back of the front trench was always left quite clear so as not to interfere with the fire of the second line.

"All along the trenches lay skins, coats, cooking utensils, food and cartridges, giving us the first indication we had had that the retreat had been anything but an orderly one. From the trenches it was a step to the gun emplacements. Here our good friends, the gunners, told us, we should find traveling and disappearing carriages, and every other artifice known to the royal artillery mind. Again were we greeted with the simplest plans to minimize the effect of the shell fire, a high embrasure covering the gun and sharp slope of the ground behind it and a deep recess cut in solid rock providing all protection necessary to enable Albrecth's Germans to live through nearly 12 weeks of lyddite and common shell. One gun, had, it is true, been demolished, as testified by explosion three weeks ago, and corroborated by the fragments of twisted iron and woodwork littering the emplacement but the others protected by their simple sandbags and the troublesome perspective ironstone kopjes, had maintained a fairly regular and accurate fire for two months of our winter at Modder river."

MOVING ON LOBATS.

Boers Leaving Mafeking in Force Under Commandant Snyman.

Lobatsi, March 16.—Boers under Commandant Snyman are advancing in force from Mafeking towards Lobatsi. Colonel Bodle made a reconnaissance on March 13, and found Pitsani and Polthung occupied by the Boers. He returned to Goode Siding and made a demonstration on March 14. He found the Boers in strength at a sharp curve in the railway. They had mounted a gun on the line and were lying in wait for the construction train. Brisk firing occurred a few miles south of Lobatsi on the morning of March 15. The Boers Maxim was freely used. Colonel Bodle came in touch with the Boers just in time to prevent the camp being surprised.

The Boers attacked an advance party and captured a few boxes of ammunition and nearly secured a Maxim. Lieutenant Tyler was killed and Lieutenant Chapman captured. Bodle's coming up put the Boers to flight with heavy loss. The Boers yesterday were within a few miles of Lobatsi.

Yesterday afternoon the Boers pressed closely on Colonel Plumer's main camp and kept up a hot fire with a Maxim, killing one white man and one native. They placed a Maxim and a 12½-pounder on a hill on the east side of the line 4000 yards from the camp. The British right was protected by Chief Bathion, who has warned the Boers not to enter his territory.

Plumer's present endeavor is to ensure the safety of the railway north of Lobatsi and watch well his flank. Probably before the Boers retire towards Pretoria they will tackle the Rhodesians in force.

It is reported the burghers are abandoning the environments of Mafeking, leaving only a sufficient number of artillerymen to man the big guns. There are no men at Ramathlabama, where they were supposed to have their base.

Plumer's scouts were at Ramathlabama yesterday.

The usual Mafeking dispatches are overdue, but no anxiety is felt on that score. Dynamite explosions are wrecking the railway proceeding south of Lobatsi.

Free Staters Would Not Go.

Aliwal North, Cape Colony, March 22.—Commandant Olivier left Smithfield two hours before the British scouts arrived. He only succeeded in inducing about 150 men to accompany him, mostly insurgent colonists. The Free Staters refused to go with him and are returning to their farms.

Irish Cause Excitement.

London, March 22.—There was considerable excitement in the house of commons this afternoon resulting from attempts on the part of Irish members to secure more of the house's time, in which they succeeded, after a noisy display of passion on part of both Irish and their opponents. Only the tact of Mr. Balfour, the government leader, saved the uproar from developing into a scene of violent disorder.

The Netherlands Decline.

The Hague, March 22.—After mature deliberation the government has dispatched a reply to Presidents Steyn and Kruger regretting it was unable to comply with their request for intervention in South African war after the formal declaration of the British government that intervention would not be accepted. It was added, however, that the government of The Netherlands would always be ready to support steps tending to restoration of peace.

Switzerland Declines.

Berne, Switzerland, March 22.—The federal council answered the Boers appeal for mediation as follows: "The Swiss federal council would have been pleased to have cooperated in a friendly mediation in order to end further bloodshed, but as the presidents of both the South African republics have directly approached the British government in order to

Mr. Crane also announces that he will not be a candidate for governor against Sayers. The Eagle felt sure Mr. Crane's good sense would not allow him to be used by the forlorn hoppers. Texas will yet bestow honors upon him. In this connection the Galveston Tribune says: "After considerable beating of the bush, the Sayers opposition is so far unable to scare up a gubernatorial candidate. From present indications Gov. Sayers will be renominated without opposition, as he should be in justice to his proud national and state record and in preservation of state political peace."

An Iowa girl wrote twenty-four times to her soldier lover in the Philippines without receiving a reply. Then she raised such an awful row with the postoffice department at Washington—denouncing the policy of expansion and the cruel, wicked war, and demanding her lover's immediate return—that a cablegram costing three dollars a word was sent to Manila to investigate the matter. And the soldier lover, in fine health and spirits, declared he got all the letters and liked to get them; he hated to answer them and had not answered a single one, but that he would write at once and scold the girl for making their love affair an official matter. The girl will probably write to Gen. Otis to have the scamp shot for high treason.

ABOUT PREPARED CHALK.

Ever have a druggist to tell you, while purchasing your prepared chalk, to wash it? If you have followed his suggestions, you will have found, after much trouble and annoyance, with it, how impracticable this process is, besides making the chalk coarser and more unfit for use than before washing. Our chalk is white as snow and soft as down, its already clean—you don't have to wash it. 5c and 10c the package.

MORE ARMS AT FRANKFORT

Large Consignment of Guns and Ammunition Received at the Capital.

Frankfort, March 22.—A large consignment of guns and ammunition were received here today and stored in buildings adjacent to the jail, where the suspects Powers, Davis and Culson are confined. This action was ordered Wednesday when it was said that armed bodies of men from the mountain counties might come here to the preliminary trials tomorrow. These rumors, were accompanied by hints that an attempt might also be made to rescue the prisoners.

An authorized statement on behalf of Colonel David G. Colson is given out in which he stated he knows nothing of the alleged confessions of Sergeant F. W. Golden, or Berry Howard.

Witnesses Against Powers.

Cobin, Ky., March 22.—Sheriff Rees of Knox county has summoned as witnesses in the Goebel murder case Misses Ella Smith, Jane Catron and Lizzie Matthews of Harboursville, who are alleged to have heard John Powers make a remark that if some one did not kill Goebel he would. They will go to Frankfort to appear as witnesses against Powers.

MACHINISTS STRIKE.

Fifteen Hundred Go Out at Cleveland for a Nine-Hour Day.

Cleveland, March 22.—Fifteen hundred machinists went on a strike here today and President O'Connell of the machinists union says 200,000 will go out on April 1, if the demand for a nine-hour day is not granted. President O'Connell left for Erie, Pa., where he expects to confer with President Seldon of the National Metal Trades' association with a view of bringing about a settlement pending the machinists' strikes at various points.

THE APPLETON FAILURE.

Receiver Appointed on Complaint of One of the Stockholders.

New York, March 22.—Justice Bishoff of the supreme court has appointed J. Hampden Dougherty as receiver for D. Appleton & Co., publishers, on the application of Daniel Pritchard, a stockholder. The bond of the receiver is fixed at $150,000. Liabilities are $1,110,000; assets consists of stock and outstanding accounts.

Indicted for Embezzlement.

New Orleans, March 22.—Alfred Clark Goodman, cotton future broker, whose failure on the cotton exchange was announced two weeks ago, has been indicted by the grand jury for misappropriation of $2000 intrusted to him by J. S. Prester, a resident of Comanche, Texas. Goodman has been arrested. The creditors of Goodman are scattered over Louisiana, Alabama, Texas, Arkansas, Georgia and Tennessee. Goodman's attorneys petitioned to the Federal court to have him declared a bankrupt after the failure. The liabilities showed $80,548.15 and assets $40,341.15. Assets fictitious representing a suit for damages which Goodman has pending.

Traveling Man Kills Himself.

Charleston, Mo., March 22.—An intelligent, well dressed stranger, identified by his effects as I. O. Redding, committed suicide at Bird's Point, a little station near here. Nothing is known of him except that his permanent address is given as Pueblo, Colo., and that he was a traveling man. In a letter found in his room he made the statement that he was without friends or money, and that his acquaintances could be found in Texas and Colorado. An inquest was held and he was buried at the expense of the county.

Tried to Beat His Brains Out.

St. Louis, March 22.—Aaron J. Bartholmew, a butcher, about 30 years old, was sent to the city hospital for observation. Monday he attempted to assault E. B. Norton and his wife with a brick while they were passing Bartholmew's house. Later Bartholmew went to Norton's home and demolished several windows with rocks. He was arrested and in the police station attempted to beat his brains out against the bars.

GENERAL DAVIS' PLAN.

He Will Construct Good Roads Out of the Money Appropriated.

New York, March 22.—A dispatch to The Journal from San Juan says: General Davis, who has recovered from his illness, said in an interview: "We shall spend most all the money furnished by congress in building roads. We will continue to feed the incapable and destitute. If a man is able-bodied and will not work he must starve. If he cannot work he will be fed."

"As free trade and constitutional rights have become political questions, I cannot enter into the controversy. I have given the government the true facts and have pointed out what I believe to be the only sound policy for the government. I cannot take part in questions of high statesmanship. The people of Puerto Rico are civilized and are more capable than the people of New Mexico, who were given territorial government 50 years ago."

Tennessee Postmaster Removed.
Jackson, Tenn., March 22.—H. K. Cochran, postoffice inspector stationed at Chattanooga, arrived here Tuesday evening and informed Postmaster W. M. Moss that he had instructions from Washington to take possession of the local office at once. The office was placed in charge of Moss' bondsmen who will hold it until a new postmaster has been appointed. Mr. Moss is charged with official misconduct as the custodian of the postoffice building, while his friends declare the cause of the removal is political, brought about by the fight in the senate between Brownlow and Evans factions. Moss is the leader of the Brownlow faction in west Tennessee. Moss' term would not have expired until June, 1901. Moss says he will refuse to make application for reinstatement.

Bankruptcy Decision.
Memphis, March 22.—A decision rendered in the United States court by Judge Hammond establishes an important precedent in bankruptcy proceedings and will attract attention from the bench and bar where bankruptcy litigation is pending. The important principle emphasized by Judge Hammond's decision is that a merchant when he sells his stock as a whole must apply the proceeds to the satisfaction of his creditors' claims; that it is as much against the bankruptcy law to conceal or transfer money with a view to defeating creditors as it is to hide any other form of property.

Smallpox Damage Suit.
Greenville, Tex., March 21.—In the damage suit of Judge A. D. Wood vs. the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway, the plaintiff was given leave to amend and the case was postponed to the next term of court. Judge Wood sues for $95,000 damages, alleging that smallpox was brought here and communicated to him and his family by negroes who were allowed to leave the railroad hospital at Sedalia and come here while having the disease. Judge Wood's whole family had the smallpox, and one child died.

Frick-Carnegie Compromise.
New York, March 22.—Authoritative confirmation is obtained of the report of the settlement of the contest between Carnegie and Frick. They have agreed to drop all suits and have signed articles for a great steel and iron combine, the details of which are to be arranged at Pittsburgh. The capital of the concern will be $200,000,000 or perhaps a little less.

Crushed His Skull.
Paris, Tex., March 22.—J. O. Haygood reports a fatal accident which occurred in the territory, two miles from Slate Shoals. While Harvey Gibson and Lev. Ball were running their horses along a wagon road going to a neighbors, young Gibson attempted to guide his horse out in a bridle path. The horse whirled abruptly and dashed him against a tree.

Suspended by Her Ring.
Rosebud, Tex., March 22.—While playing at the schoolhouse Ella Nabors, 12 years old, jumped up, catching at a window. The ring on the third finger got hung in some manner tearing all the flesh off and broke the bone between the first and second joints, leaving only a small piece of skin holding the dismembered end.

Money for Land Leases.
Austin, March 22.—The state has received from C. C. Slaughter, a well known cattleman, the sum of $12,400.45, which was the total amount due the state for back leases for the use of some sections of state school land for 12 years, and of other sections less than that time.

Argument Ends Fatally.
Nacogdoches, Tex., March 22.—News by telephone from Lufkin is received here that Robert Scroggins was shot to death in his store in Home. A man named Borden at once went to Lufkin and surrendered to the sheriff. The difficulty was over a local option contest.

Sayers Going to Washington.
Austin, March 22.—Governor Sayers is making arrangements to go to Washington to look after the war claims held in Texas for supplies and transportation furnished troops mobilized in this state. These claims have never been paid.

Killed in a Runaway.
Huntsville, Tex., March 22.—C. C. Cole a teamster, was injured at Grant's Colony by a runaway team, dying from the injuries. He was a newcomer from the old states and had no relatives here. He was about 60 years old.

Registration of Fort Worth.
Fort Worth, Tex., March 22.—The registration of Fort Worth's voters closed with 6425 names enrolled, the largest registration on record for any year.

Loud's Bill Discussed in the House.
Efforts to Amend British Treaty Failed—Bill to Help the St. Louis Exposition.

Washington, March 22.—During the debate in the house yesterday upon the Loud bill relating to secondclass matter there was a sharp exchange between Mr. McPherson (Rep. Ia.) and Mr. Lenta (Dem. O.) over a charge made by the former that the latter was the attorney of the lobby which is fighting the bill. Otherwise the debate was without incident. Both the friends and opponents of the measure express the belief that the vote upon final passage will be close.

Mr. Loud has agreed to accept two amendments, one to increase the number of sample copies which newspapers can send out at second class rates from 500 to 2000 and the other to limit the provision requiring newspapers to separate their mail to those having in excess of 5000 circulation.

Upon the authority of the governor of Alaska, Mr. Turner of Washington made the statement in the senate that concessions for gold mining in the bed of the sea near Cape Nome, had been granted by the secretary of war and upon that statement he based a resolution of inquiry. Senator Turner said if such a grant had been made it was a "shame, a reproach and a scandal." The resolution was agreed to.

In a few minutes and without discussion the additional urgent deficiency bill was passed.

In the executive session of the senate two efforts to amend the treaty between the United States and Great Britain relative to the disposition of estates were defeated by very decisive votes. One of the amendments offered to strike out section 5 of the amendment extending the same privileges to each of the two nations in the matter of executing or holding property that may be extended to any other nations. The other related to the striking out of the provision authorizing the queen of England or the president of the United States to extend the provisions of the treaty to dependencies of the two countries.

Deny Published Statements.
Washington, March 22.—The war department officials deny the published statements that General Otis' campaign is costing upward of 1000 men every month. According to the official records since the American occupation of the Philippines, June 1, 1898, up to Feb. 17, 1900, the date of the last official compilation, the actual mortality in the army in the Philippines was 65 officers and 1460 men, a total of 1525, or at the rate of 74 deaths a month.

Revenue Receipts.
Washington, March 22.—The monthly statement of the collection of internal revenue show that for the month of February, 1900, the total receipts from all sources were $20,890,665, an increase as compared with the same month in 1899 of $1,160,659.

To Aid St. Louis Exposition.
Washington, March 22.—Representative Lane of Iowa, has introduced a bill providing for an exposition at St. Louis, Mo., in 1903, to celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of the purchase of the Louisiana territory. The bill provides for the government building to cost $400,000, and also for the expenditure of $5,000,000 by the government when the exposition authorities have raised $10,000,000.

Provision is also made for the creation of a commission and for other features giving the exposition a national and international scope.

To Restrict Bank Loans.
Washington, March 22.—A bill restricting National banks from making loans to the officers has been favorably acted on by the house committee on banking and currency. The measure has been urged by the comptroller of the currency on the ground that many bank failures were caused by ill advised loans to officials of the banks.

Says He Was Damaged.
Galveston, March 22.—Dr. J. M. Wright of League City, has entered suit against Clarence Warfield and Martin Byrne for $6000 damages. Until the last meeting of the commissioners' court, held about two weeks ago, Wright was assistant county physician in charge of the county farm patients. The office at that meeting was abolished. Wright claims Warfield, county physician, and Byrne, county commissioner, libeled him in certain statements made at that meeting.

Mexican With Counterfeit.
Lockhart, Tex., March 22.—A Mexican was arrested at Luling and jailed on a charge of passing counterfeit money. When arrested he had on his person $9.50 in counterfeit half dollars and quarters. The counterfeit money appears to be molded of common babbitt metal. The mold was very good, but the metal is very easily detected.

Grain Elevator Burned.
South Bend, Ind., March 22.—Hagey, Moore & Co.'s grain elevator at North Liberty, this county, was destroyed by fire starting from an overheated tube of a gasoline engine. Over 10000 bushels of grain were destroyed. The loss is $7000 with no insurance. The proprietors will rebuild.
